LOG SAWING

Which team is fastest in sawing off one piece of the log? The inter-play of technique and power are decisive. Teams will compete against each other against the clock, The fastest team to complete the task will be awarded a tray of schnapps Prost !!!

YARD OF ALE

This game separates the men from the boys. A timed challenge between teams. A drinking game that requires technique as well as speed. Winning team will be awarded a tray of schnapps. Prost !!! Beer for game included in price of the show

NAIL KNOCKING

The aim of the game is to hammer the nail all the way into the log with the thin end of a hammer the quickest. There is no particular technique that works better than another, the harder you swing the more wild is your aim, but if you do connect the nail goes further into the log.

The softer you swing the more accurate you are and more likely to hit the nail head, but of course the nail doesn't go in so far and it takes more hits to hammer it all the way. Teams compete against each other and against the clock for a tray of schnapps .

STEIN HOISTING

The game is simple, how long can you hold a 1 Litre glass stein filled to the brim with liquid and held by a straight ninety degree (90 ) arm in front of entrant, parallel to the floor with elbows locked. Once entrant's elbow bends or spills/drops the stein, entrant loses the contest. Longest time wins the contest and a tray of schnapps for their team, Prost!!!

SQUARE EGG LAYING

In the early eighteen hundreds the hens in southern Germany stopped laying eggs the local government employed local villagers to stand in front of the hens and mimic egg laying. The problem is the egg is square and it take effort to force it out, Its painful. The best impersonation of a hen laying a square egg wins for their team a tray of schnapps

BLOW YOUR HORN

Every German village has a female Horn Blower, her main task is to call the cows in. This is a test of who can blow the horn the best. Crossed eyes and puffed out cheeks make it great fun to watch. Best lady wins for their team a tray of schnapps , Prost !

LADIES HORSE RACING

Its ladies day at the races. A balloon is fixed to a air pump that is placed on their seats. All the ladies are required to do is the bounce up and down on the air pump and first to burst the balloon wins a tray of schnapps for their team, Prost !!!

TRAYS OF SCHNAPPS FOR GAME WINNERS

No Oktoberfest would be complete without the little tots of Schnapps. Your guests are placed into teams (normally a row of tables for each team) they compete against each other in the 10 Bavarian themed games. The winning team OF EACH GAME receive a tray of 35% proof German Schnapps. There can be up to 30 in a team so during the course of the evenings fun we will give out 300 tots of German Schnapps .
